My dear Grace,- yours of Sunday recd this a.m.- all going well.- Don't worry one bit regarding (Mistenides)- If she comes o.k. and if I miss her o.k. I don't care a blank.- You engage your sleeper for Tues. June 29th- just as Uncle is so kind & loving and a help rather than a hindrance. - Mr. Armstrong leaves today. One of the Yorke boys died in Elgin & is buried today. - Miller is better. - They were pleased to hear from you. - Don't read. Rest your eyes & give them a chance. Sam sending you by registered mail 2 copies of your photos. - Glad 6 pix of you finished as yours will dry out. - What do you want done with the rest? - Until then, Sweetheart. - Love & kisses, Mother

Uncle took meant to tenderness. - Much love & kisses, Mother
